

A BATTLEFIELDS DAY

Kineton, Warwickshire – June 24th 2006

The Battlefields Trust in association with Kineton & District Local History Group

Official launch of the long distance footpath linking Edgcote, Cropredy and Edgehill battlefields, and an exhibition and lectures on the results of the Edgehill battlefield survey

11.00 Launch of the Edgcote to Edgehill Battlefields Trail
by Professor Richard Holmes at Kineton Churchyard

10.00 – 13.30 Exhibition on the Trail and Battlefield Survey
at Kineton Village Hall

14.00 – 17.15 Conference – New perspectives on the Battle of Edgehill
at Kineton Village Hall

Conference tickets at a cost of £5.00 per attendee are available from:
The Battlefields Trust – email: edgehillsurvey@battlefieldstrust.com

Professor Richard Holmes
President of The Battlefields Trust

A BATTLEFIELDS DAY

Kineton, Warwickshire - Saturday 24th June 2006

The Battlefields Trust in association with Kineton & District Local History Group.
Official launch of the long distance footpath linking Edgcote, Cropredy and Edgehill battlefields, and an exhibition and lectures on the results of the Edgehill battlefield survey.

PROGRAMME

Launch of the Edgcote to Edgehill Battlefields Trail

Kineton Churchyard

11:00 – 11:30 Official opening of the Trail by Professor Richard Holmes (President of the Battlefields Trust). Re-enactors from both the Wars of the Roses and Civil War groups will be in attendance.

Exhibition on the Trail and Battlefield Survey

Kineton Village Hall

10:00 – 1:30 Exhibition on the Battlefields Trail and the Edgehill Survey. Trail team, metal detecting survey team members and re-enactors will be on hand to talk to visitors.

Conference: New perspectives on the Battle of Edgehill

Kineton Village Hall

Lectures from leading researchers in battlefield studies re-interpret the first great battle of the Civil War, presenting new evidence from the Trust's survey. Conference admission by advance ticket only, £5 per attendee, from: The Battlefields Trust - email: edgehillsurvey@battlefieldstrust.com

Chaired by John Kliene

- 2:00 – 2:10 Professor Richard Holmes: The context and importance of Edgehill
2:10 – 2:30 Keith Roberts: C17th military practice and the Edgehill commanders' experience
2:30 – 2:50 Simon Marsh: The armies and the casualties: interpreting the evidence
2:55 – 3:15 John Tincey: Digging in the archives-what we know and what we don't know about the battle of Edgehill
3:20 – 3:50 Tea & biscuits: An opportunity to view the exhibition and to talk to the speakers, detecting team members and re-enactors
3:50 – 4:10 Clive Kibblewhite / David Beaumont: The metal detecting survey and finds recording
4:15 – 4:55 Glenn Foard: Archaeology and the re-interpretation of the battle
Mike Athanson: Ballistics studies on the Edgehill evidence
5:00 – 5:15 Questions & Discussion

